GENERAL INFORMATION

WHAT COULD HAPPEN IF YOU FAIL TO MEET YOUR COMMITMENTS

Security interest

We have a security interest in the property and the land described below under the heading SECURITIES to secure performance of your obligations under this Agreement and the payment of money payable under this Agreement. If we hold a security interest in personal property, we will register our interest on the Personal Property Securities Register. If we hold a security interest in land, we will register a mortgage with Land Information New Zealand. The security interest secures the repayment of all money you owe us and the performance of all of your obligations to us, under this Agreement and any Collateral Document. The security interest gives us direct rights in the relevant property which we can exercise if you fail to meet your commitments under this Agreement, including if you grant a security interest over the same property to another person. These rights include the right to repossess and sell this property or land. If the proceeds of sale do not repay the Loan in full, you will remain liable to repay the outstanding balance. We confirm that no disabling devices will be fitted to any secured property.

Default interest and default fees

If an Event of Default occurs under Clause 12.2 (a) of the General Terms, or if at any time the Maximum Amount or Maximum Credit Limit is exceeded, and while the relevant event continues, you must pay Interest at the Default Rate and the Fees as specified below.

The Default Rate is 5.00% per annum above the annual interest rate.

A default fee of $100.00 (plus Recovery Costs) may be charged for any breach by you under this Agreement or if we enforce this Agreement.

The default fees and charges compensate us for the costs incurred by us in connection with enforcement or the remedy of a breach under this Agreement. Such costs could include debt collection and repossession fees charged by a third party (Repossession Agent, Legal Provider) which will be debited to the loan for the invoiced amount. Copies of which are available upon request

EARLY REPAYMENT CHARGE

If you pay the unpaid balance in full before the final payment is due (Early Repayment), you may be required to pay an amount to compensate us for any loss resulting from the Early Repayment. We may have suffered a loss if our current interest rate is lower than the interest rate applying to your Loan. You may also have to pay our administrative costs relating to the Early Repayment.

Administrative costs $100.00

STATEMENT OF RIGHT TO CANCEL

The Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 gives you a right for a short time after the terms of this Agreement have been disclosed to you to cancel the Agreement.

How to cancel

- giving notice to us or one of our employees or agents; or
- posting the notice to us or one of our agents; or
- emailing the notice to our email address.

You must also return to us any advance and any other property received by you under the Agreement.

Time limits for cancellation

If the disclosure documents are handed to you directly you must give notice that you intend to cancel within 5 working days after you receive the documents.

If the disclosure documents are sent to you by electronic means (for example, email) you must give notice that you intend to cancel within 7 working days after the electronic communication is sent.

If the documents are mailed to you, you must give the notice within 9 working days after they were posted.

Saturdays, Sundays and national public holidays are not counted as working days.

What you may have to pay if you cancel

If you cancel the Agreement we can charge you:

- (a) The amount of any reasonable expenses we had to pay in connection with the Agreement and its cancellation (including legal fees and fees for credit reports, etc); and
- (b) Interest for the period from the day you received the Loan until the day you repay the Loan.

This statement only contains a summary of your rights and obligations in connection with the right to cancel. If there is anything about your rights or obligations under the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 that you do not understand, if there is a dispute about your rights, or if you think that we are being unreasonable in any way, you should seek legal advice immediately.

STATEMENT OF RIGHT TO MAKE HARDSHIP APPLICATION

If you are unable reasonably to keep up your payments or other obligations because of illness, injury, loss of employment, the end of a relationship, or other reasonable cause, you may be able to apply to us for a hardship variation.

To apply for a hardship variation, you need to:

- (a) make an application in writing; and
- (b) explain your reason(s) for the application; and
- (c) request one of the following:
  - an extension to the term of the Agreement (which will reduce the amount of each payment due under the Agreement); or
  - a postponement of the dates on which payments are due under the Agreement (specify the period for which you want this to apply); or
  - both of the above; and
- (d) give the application to us.

Do this as soon as possible. If you leave it for too long, we may not have to consider your application.

Application must be made before you (the Borrower) have:

- been in default for two months or more;
- been in default for two weeks or more after receiving a repossession warning notice or Property Law Act notice, or
- failed to make four or more consecutive loan repayments on their due date.

CONTINUING DISCLOSURE

We may be required to provide you with regular disclosure statements. The statements will give you information about your account. If we are required to provide you with regular statements, those statements will be provided six monthly or at least every 45 working days if your Loan is a Revolving Credit Loan (or at such other times required under the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003).

If you do not have Internet Banking service with Nelson Building Society we will forward your statements to your email address.
